

About Wed Me Dee

I'm Daneen Harrison—though most people know me as “Dee.” Since 2016, I've had the honor of being a non-denominational Ordained Minister through the Universal Life Church. My journey into officiating began with a close friend's wedding, and before I knew it, friends of friends were reaching out.

One beautiful ceremony was all it took for me to realize how much I love being part of this extraordinary milestone in people's lives. That joy has grown into a full-fledged passion, and I'm grateful for every couple who invites me into their story. I officiate weddings across NY, NJ, and CT, designing ceremonies that align with your vision and feel authentically yours.

Whether your celebration is filled with family and friends, an intimate gathering with your kids and pets, or just the two of you, I'm here to ensure your day is as peaceful, joyful, and meaningful as possible. While no one can promise a “perfect” day, I can promise personal diligence, thoughtfulness, and a ceremony that truly reflects your love story. Every couple has a unique love story that deserves a personalized and heartfelt celebration. As an experienced wedding officiant, I am honored to guide you through this milestone, crafting a ceremony that reflects your love, values, and dreams. Your Love Story, Your Ceremony, Your Day!

With a commitment to understanding what makes your relationship special, I work closely with you to create a meaningful experience that captures the essence of your journey together. From romantic, non-traditional ceremonies to celebrations steeped in cultural traditions, I tailor every detail to suit your vision. From small, heartfelt moments to grand celebrations, my goal is to ensure your ceremony is meaningful, joyful, and truly memorable. I often serve couples who describe themselves as “spiritual but not religious,” and I warmly embrace all beliefs and traditions. Together, we'll design a ceremony that reflects your unique connection and the journey that brought you here.

It is also important to ensure your officiant has a reliable backup in place. I often hear from brides whose original officiant canceled without a replacement. To provide peace of mind, my partner John serves as my alternate officiant—he is experienced and exceptional in his role. Let's work together to make your dream wedding a reality. I am here to provide creative ideas, support, and guidance every step of the way. Your love brought you to this moment—let me help you create a ceremony you'll cherish forever.

Taking the first step towards your dream ceremony is easy! Schedule a free, no-obligation consultation with me to discuss your vision and answer any questions you might have. Let's create something beautiful together. I can't wait to celebrate your journey to “I do.”

Warm regards,

Officiant Daneen “Dee” Harrison & Officiant John Ragone

Friend or Family Officiating Assistance

Friend or Family Member Officiating? Let's not hand them the mic and hope for the best!

Having someone you love officiate your wedding is a beautiful choice. Just make sure the words match the moment.

Most first-time officiants are not nervous about the legal part — they're nervous about standing in front of everyone with a script they're not sure works. This service fixes that. I'll help write and refine the ceremony script, review your vows line by line, and coach your friend or family member through delivering it so they sound like themselves rather than like someone reading.

Three one-hour Google Meet sessions, up to four rounds of revisions, and the full Wed Me Dee Ceremony Packet — sample scripts, and wording samples for every section.

Available to couples anywhere, since everything is done over Google Meet. Keep the existing inclusions and à la carte list exactly as it is.

Whenever you contact me - whether by email, phone, or text, I'll get back to you as soon as possible. I offer a FREE, no-pressure consultation so you can ask questions, learn more about the process, and get a feel for my style and approach. It's also a chance for me to learn about you, your story, and the type of ceremony you're dreaming of, ensuring we're the perfect match for your special day.

If you'd like to take next steps to save the date, I will send a Contract for Services and I'll take a payment deposit to lock in the date. Once all parties have signed the contract, my services include:
